DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

---

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of January. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during January which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

PORTO RICO

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF U. S. In the Supreme court of the United States. October term, 1917. Nos. 534, 647. The People of Porto Rico, Epifanio Mesa and Alvaro Padial, appellants, v. Carlos Tapia. Appeal from the District court of the United States for the district of Porto Rico. The People of Porto Rico and Charles E. Foote, judge of the District court of Mayaguez, plaintiffs in error, v. Jose Muratti. In error and on writ of certiorari to the Supreme court of Porto Rico.

Washington, Gov't. print. off., 1918. cover title. [2], iii, 66 p. 8°.

"The question in these cases is whether the act of March 2, 1917, c. 145, 39 Stat. 951 (commonly known as the Jones Act), effected an incorporation of Porto Rico into the United States so that indictment by grand jury became a prerequisite to prosecution in the insular courts. The facts and the procedure by which the cases come before the court, the Tapia case on appeal, and the Muratti case on writ of error, and certiorari granted October 22, 1917, are set forth in the brief filed by the attorney general for Porto Rico and associate counsel. The issues are of high importance to the national government, and in this brief the cases are treated especially from that viewpoint."

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of February. State offices are requested to furnish copies of documents distributed during February which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

PORTO RICO

ATTORNEY GENERAL. En la Corte suprema de Puerto Rico. Jose Muratti, peticionario, vs. la Corte de distrito del distrito judicial de Mayaguez, P. R., demandado. Num. 185. Recurso de certiorari procedente de la Corte de distrito de Mayaguez, P. R. Contestación y alegato del attorney general de Puerto Rico en representación de el Pueblo de Puerto Rico, interventor. Howard L. Kern, attorney general de Puerto Rico, abogado de el Pueblo de Puerto Rico. George S. Brengle, of counsel. Salvador Mestre, fiscal de la Corte suprema.
[San Juan, 1917.] cover title. [2], 44 p. 8°.

——— No. 648 criminal. The District court of the United States for Porto Rico. April 28, 1917. In the matter of application of Carlos Tapia for a writ of habeas corpus. Brief and reply brief on behalf of the People of Porto Rico, intervenor, and on behalf of the respondent et al. Howard L. Kern, attorney general of Porto Rico, attorney for the People of Porto Rico et al. George S. Brengle, of counsel.
[San Juan, 1917.] cover title. [2], iii, 41 p. 8°.

"If Carlos Tapia, the prisoner, has been finally held for trial, it has been under the provisions of the code of criminal procedure allowing a person charged with a crime to be held for trial on an information filed by the fiscal. He has not been held following the presentment or indictment of a grand jury. The fifth amendment of the constitution of the United States provides that 'No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger;' This amendment only applies to the United States courts and to the courts of the territories which are incorporated into the United States. If Porto Rico, at the time of the commission of the crime for which the accused is held, was an incorporated territory of the United States, the requirements of the fifth amendment apply. If it was not, then the provisions of that amendment are not binding on the local court. The great issue of this case, therefore, is whether or not after March 2, 1917, Porto Rico is an incorporated territory of the United States to which the fifth amendment of the constitution of the United States applies."

ATTORNEY GENERAL. In the Supreme court of the United States, October term, 1917. No. 534. The People of Porto Rico, Epifanio Mesa, and Alvaro Padial, appellants, vs. Carlos Tapia, appellee. Brief for the People of Porto Rico, et al., appellants.

"Your petitioner now alleges that both in allowing the said information to be filed and in the arraignment of your petitioner and requiring him to plead to the same, the said District court acted without authority or jurisdiction and in manifest violation of the constitional rights of your petitioner, inasmuch as the said information had not been formed or presented by a grand jury in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of the fifth amendment to the constitution of the United States, now in full force and effect in Porto Rico."

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of March. State offices are requested to furnish copies of documents distributed during March which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in the smaller type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of April. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during April which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of May. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during May which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

"The Commission organized by the election of Henry M. Sage as chairman, H. Edmund Machold as vice-chairman and Lewis F. Pilcher as secretary. In order to facilitate its work subcommittees were named as follows: Medical, metropolitan district, mechanical plants, mortuaries, tuberculosis pavilions and care of the feeble minded. Of these committees the medical and metropolitan district committees have reported to the Commission. Their findings have been adopted and are made a part of this report. The mortuary committee adopted a plan for an ideal mortuary in connection with state hospitals which was approved by the Commission. The committee on tuberculosis pavilions performed a like service—The committee on mechanical plants employed an expert who has visited several of the heating and power plants and has studied the plans of all of them and has made preliminary recommendations to the Commission which are now under consideration. The committee on care of the feeble minded has also employed an expert and his findings are made a part of this report."

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of June. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during June which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the months of July and August. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during July and August which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of September. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during September which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) Governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of October. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during October which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the Documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

---

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) Governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of November. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during November which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of December. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during December which are not included in this number.

---

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.
